

June 29th 2017

BIBLE READING FOR SCHOOLS COMPETITION 2017

The annual Bible Reading for Schools competition took place at Hunstanton Methodist Church in Cromer Road this year.

3 Schools took part, Hunstanton Primary, Glebe School and Docking School.

Everyone who read obtained above the minimum mark of 65 and received a gold certificate. They were as follows.

Year 1. Olivia Belham. (Age 5)

Year 2. Evie Sykes, Harry Robinson, Summer Mann.

Year 3 Purity- Rose Ologhoejebi, Scarlett Hallard, Freddie Gribbin, Tia Odedra.

Year 4, Charles Prout. Macey Jezeph, Lexie Reynolds.

Year 5, Ethan Newton-Walters, Asia Boswell, Ebony Hodgeman, Kirstie Nudds,

Year 6, Oliver Shaw, Elise Barber, Kitty Robinson, Daisy Waddison.

Best readers in each group: Olivia Belham, Evie Sykes, Tia Odedra, Ethan Newton-Walters, Macey Jezeph, Oliver Shaw.

Best overall readers were Macey Jezeph and Oliver Shaw who both managed a magnificent 80 marks.

Adjudicator Ann McKimm said "the standard was very high this year with everyone making a real effort to put interest and feeling into their spoken pieces. This was a most enjoyable event and I commend all the students for taking part and I was very pleased with the standard - they all did very well."

For further details of other HDFFA events please contact the website. www.HDFA.org.uk or www.facebook.co.uk

Ends

Further info from the organiser: Penny Tong

Or Ann on 01485 533933